Sputnik and The Dawn of the Space Age

History changed on October 4, 1957 when the Soviet Union successfully launched Sputnik I. The world's first artificial satellite was about the size of a beach ball (58 cm. or 22.8 inches in diameter), weighed only 83.6 kg. or 183.9 pounds, and took about 98 minutes to orbit the Earth on its elliptical path. That launch ushered in new political, military, technological, and scientific developments.

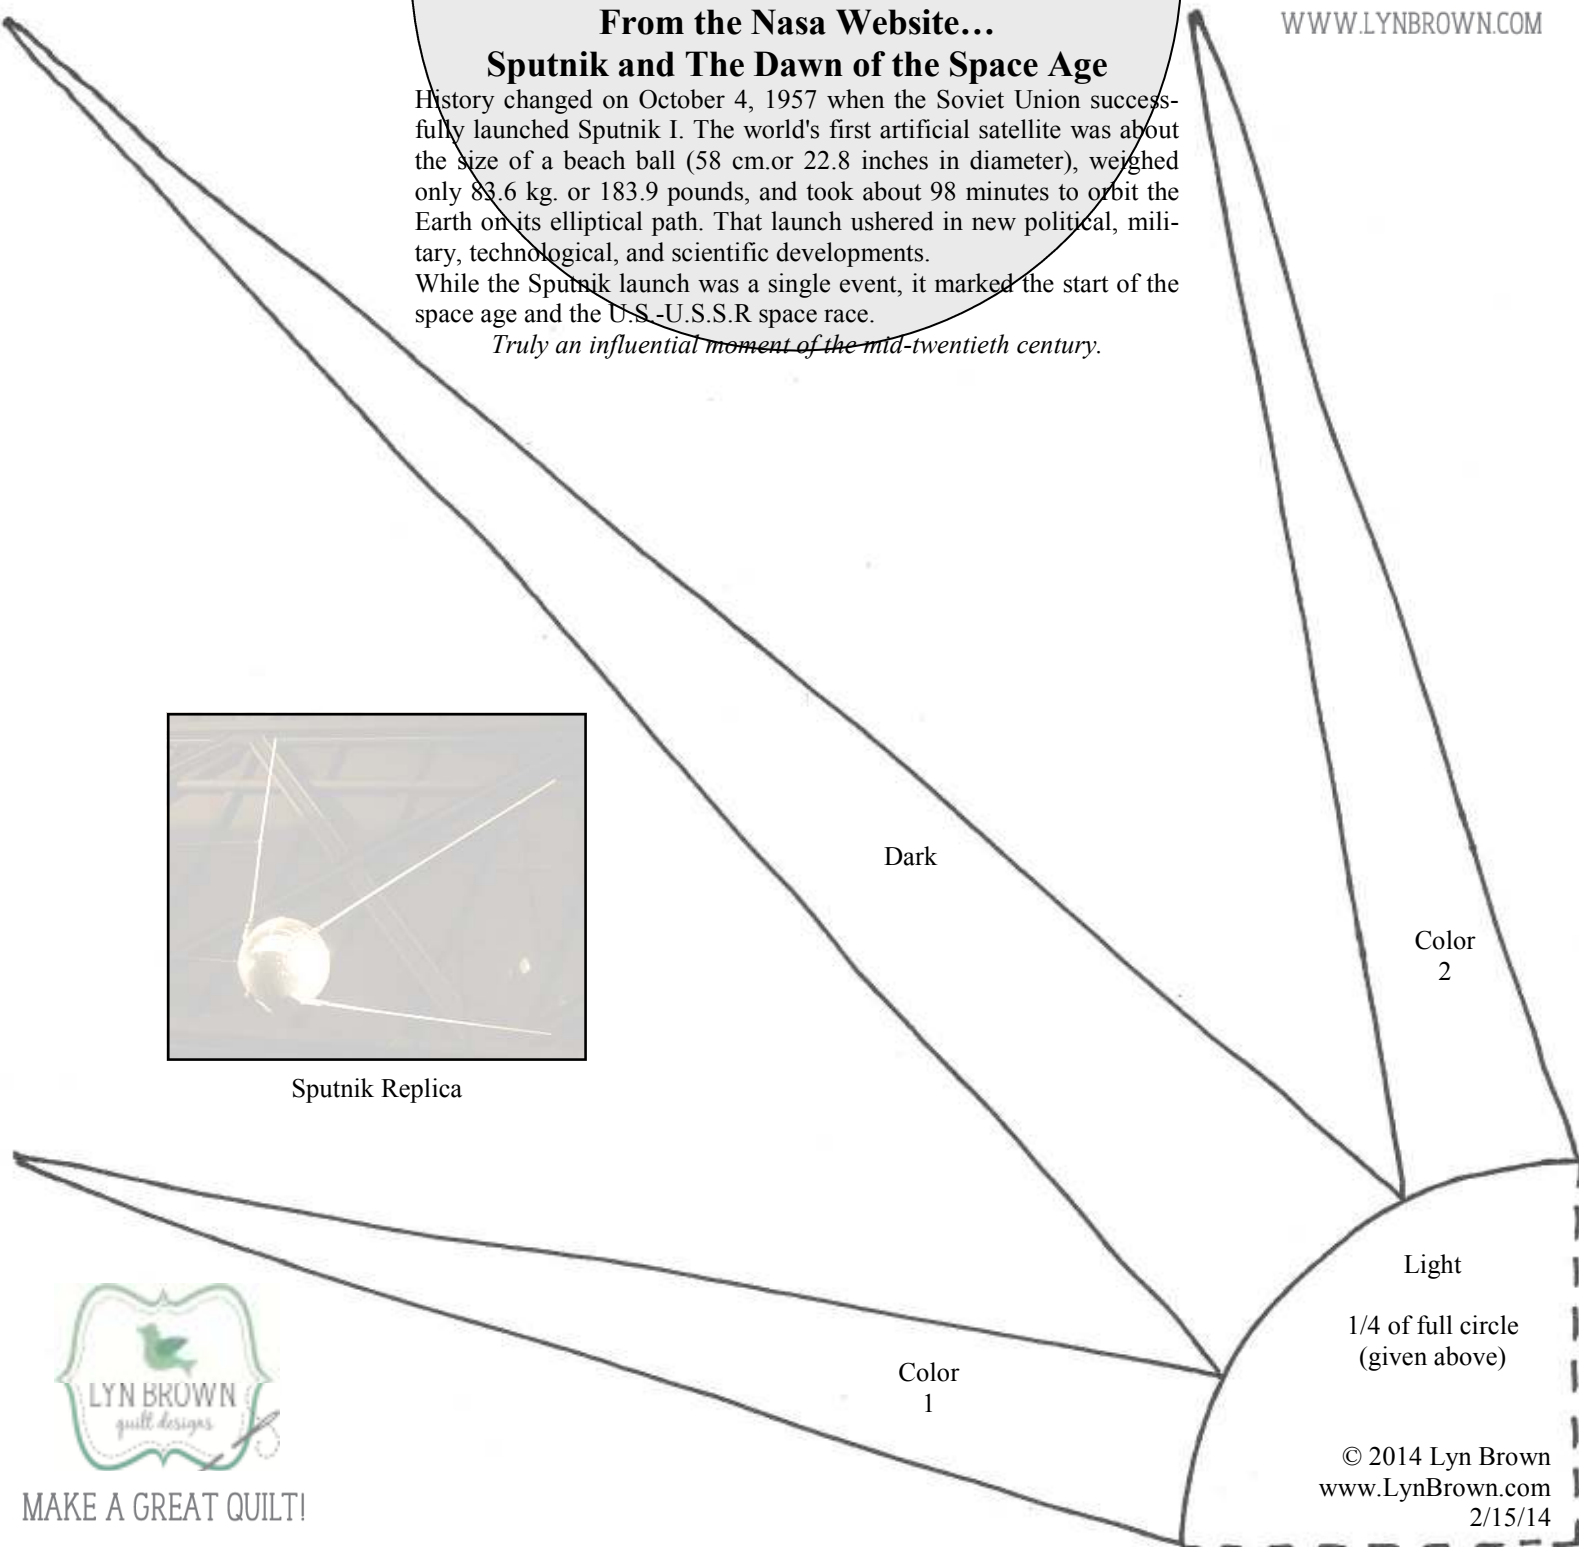

While the Sputnik launch was a single event, it marked the start of the space age and the U.S.-U.S.S.R space race.

Truly an influential moment of the mid-twentieth century.
